

Green Issues Movie Series

Wednesday, June 30: Recipes for Disaster

Director John Webster convinces his wife and two small children that the whole family should go on an oil diet, but maintain their middle class suburban lifestyle. In this comedy of errors, they find themselves questioning their values and putting to test their will power and, ultimately, their happiness.

Wednesday, July 21: Sisters on the Planet

The Sisters on the Planet are six amazing women from very different parts of the world. They face unique challenges but together are finding solutions and bringing about change. These stories of courage, tenacity and inspiration offer hope in the face of increasingly bleak climate predictions.

Wednesday, August 11: Good Food

A look at how local farmers and ranchers in the Pacific Northwest United States develop sustainable and organic agriculture.

All movies are free to the public and start at 7:00 p.m. in Korb Classroom at the Fine Arts Center at Wabash College
