

The League of Women Voters of Montgomery County is a nonpartisan political organization that encourages informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

Who can join the LWV?

All men and women are invited to join the LWV where hands-on work to safeguard democracy leads to civic improvement. Joining the Montgomery County LWV automatically confers membership in the Indiana LWV and the LWV of United States.

With more than 160 members, the Montgomery County League is a powerful voice in the community.

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.”

Margaret Mead

What Does the League Do?
